26 May 1952

SUBJECT: Artichoke

- C 1. [REDACTED] C [REDACTED] phoned today saying that [REDACTED] A
[REDACTED] is in town and had hoped to talk to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] is going on another trip and is looking for guidance. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] felt that it was inappropriate to give guidance, to which I agreed, and I suggested that he simply ask [REDACTED] to pick up any information in this field which he happened to run across. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] said that he would get us off the hook as far as talking to [REDACTED] was concerned on the basis of [REDACTED] non-availability. A

C A 2. Later today, [REDACTED] came in to tell me H-B3 C A that he had dined with [REDACTED] last night, and that [REDACTED] was very anxious to pass on to us information about certain materials which [REDACTED] had manufactured, and which had reached the Soviets. I suggested that [REDACTED] have the information extracted by the [REDACTED] office, and that a copy of the G report be sent personally to me.
